LAST DATE: 10th May, 2026

Expand Your Horizons with ICAI's Online Foreign Language Course

As the world continues to globalize, the ability to communicate in multiple languages is becoming a key asset in today's professional landscape. Mastery of foreign languages not only opens up new career opportunities but also enhances professional development through effective cross-cultural communication.

To better serve the needs of our members and students, the Global Trade & Services Committee at ICAI is conducting a survey to understand your preferences for learning foreign languages through virtual platforms. With an aim to overcome language barrier and thereby to have enhanced professional opportunities overseas, ICAI, under the aegis of the Committee is conducting online batches of French language course in association with Alliance Francaise, Spanish language course with Instituto Cervantes, German language course with Goethe Institute (Max Mueller), Japanese language course with The Japan Foundation and Business English Languages course with British Council for its members and students and is working to initiate batches for other foreign languages in next few months based on the demand for those foreign languages.

Interested members/students are requested to kindly express their interest for the preferred foreign language which would facilitate ICAI to open up future batches of foreign languages.
